CHES Project Response to Consultation on Release 1 (Clearing Services) – Amendments to Rules and Procedures

In March 2025, ASX published a consultation paper to support Release 1 of the CHES Project, with the objective to seek feedback on the operation of the proposed rule and procedure amendments and any unintended consequences.

Today, ASX has released the CHES Project Response to Consultation on Release 1 (Clearing Services) – Amendments to Rules and Procedures.

In response to the proposed amendments set out in the consultation paper, ASX received submissions from four stakeholders, including from two Approved Market Operators (AMOs), one Participant and one industry association.
